FIRE CALL AT THE REGIONAL SCHOOL

An alarm at the Regional School brought out apparatus from both Mattapoisett and Marion on Sunday night. Engine 4 of Mattapoisett was first on the scene followed almost immediately by Marion apparatus. The firemen were forced to break into the school through the glass panel in the front door as they do not yet have master keys to the building. It was found that for some reason a gas incinerator was in operation and because of this the automatic alarm was activated. Townspeople from both Marion and Mattapoisett showed up in force at the school following the arrival of the fire engines.

MATTAPOISETT JUVENILE GRANGE MEETING

A meeting of the Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange was held Friday night in the Grange Hall with the worthy master, Barry Denham, presiding.

During the business meeting plans were made to put on a pot luck supper to benefit the Arthritis fund, a project of the State Grange, by the Home and Community Service Committee. The supper is to be held April 29th with Barry Denham and Doris Fearing in charge. Edward Alves will be in charge of the tickets.

Plans were discussed on the visitation the Juvenile Grange will make to Fairhaven when the Sippican Pomona Grange meets there. The Juvenile Grange will put on a demonstration meeting and a program in recognition of Juvenile youth.

Jimmy Costa gave the Agricultural report. The sunshine committee chairman, Susan Silva, circulated a get well card among the members to sign for Mrs. Bertha Nichols, past juvenile superintendent, who is a patient at the Robert Brigham hospital in Boston.

This being Home and Community Service Night the program was turned over to the chairman, Doris Fearing. She read her report on the work she and her committee have done since November. Her honored guest and speaker was Alice Marshall, chairman of the State Grange, who spoke on the Juvenile project, that of dressing a doll. She also spoke of the children inflicted with arthritis in the hospital as well as adults and of her visit with many of them. She also spoke of her appreciation and interest in the supper being planned with proceeds going to the arthritis fund.

The chairman also presented Mrs. Marion Hatton who in turn presented some of the members of her committee who are working for the same project. Mrs. Hatton presented the lovely doll to Doris from her committee. She expressed how interested they will be to see the doll being dressed in accordance with the rules of the National Grange. tern of seven pieces will start the needlework, each sleeve, parts of the blouse and skirt numbering 1-7 will cover 7 projects done by the Juvenile Home and Community Service Committee. The doll will be sent to the State Grange with dolls dressed by the same rules from other Juvenile Granges.

Corsages were presented to Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Hatton and members of her committee from the Juvenile chairman.

Another highlight of the program was the chalk talk and demonstration put on by Mr. Herbert Arral. This was most informative as well as entertaining to the young Juvenile Grangers and adults.

Refreshments were served by Michael Menzes and Edward Alves with Mrs. Heuberger and Mrs. Harris as hostesses.

STREET NUMBERING

Mr. Loren Mosher of Main Street, Mattapoisett has done a great deal of work in an effort to have Mattapoisett streets numbered, and has turned over his preliminary work to the Selectmen who will form a committee to see that the work is carried out. Mr. Mosher said that even though the mail service for the town is not immediately possible, this process of numbering will prepare the town for mail service when it can be started. In addition, the convenience to visitors and delivery men trying to locate people here will have immediate benefits. The insurance company numbered plans, mentioned as a possibility, mark the town out in 50 ft. plots and number consecutively and so are not adaptable to street numbering which requires odd and even numbering to the actual size of the house lots. The other 1950 map of the center of the town, which was mentioned at Town Meeting, could be utilized-by drawing in the new streets which have been added since then. Mr. Mosher said that the $1200 figure was an estimate given by an engineering firm for the job. This was the figure voted. However, as he mentioned at the Town Meeting, any money not required for the work will be turned back to the town.

BLUE LAWS DISCUSSED AT GRANGE MEETING

Representative Allan Jones (R.-Barnstable) was the guest speaker at the Booster Night program of the Mattapoisett Grange last Thursday night at the Grange Hall. Representative Jones, introduced by the lecturer, Mrs. Myrtle Spagnoli, spoke on Blue Laws, the 1962 State budget and State beaches.

Albert Pemberton, past master, presided in the absence of the master, Mrs. Mildred LeBaron. Leland F. Perry of Pocasset, deputy, extended greetings from John E. Johnson of Chelmsford, State master. Other guests included Dexter Edgerly, master of Acushnet Grange; Police Chief Alden S. Kinney, Enoch LeBaron Winslow, chairman of Mattapoisett Board of Assessors; Mattapoisett Town Clerk, Mrs. Helen G. Tinkham; and William H. Winslow, treasurer.

dation will be held at the hall March 31st at 7:45 P.M., announced by Mrs. Marion Hatton, chairman of the home and community service committee. This is one of the State Grange projects mentioned by Mrs. Hatton.

Plans are being made for a blood typing program in conjunction with Civil Defense, and a chest x-ray program.

A card party to benefit the plumbing fund will be held March 28th at the home of Mrs. John Barber, Fairhaven Road. Mrs. Walter Vaughn will be hostess.

Mrs. Clifford Atkinson of the agricultural committee spoke on the care of rose bushes and rose trees, and described the new miniature roses and yellow petunia.

Plans for the annual fair in August were announced by Otto Kellish, overseer.

Neighbors' Night at O-ne-set Grange is March 26th, and it will be competitive night at West Wareham Grange March 27th.

A surprise program is planned for April 4th. Cake and coffee were served after the meeting.

ROCHESTER GRANGE

Rochester Grange members voted a donation to the Youth Committee at its regular meeting Wednesday night. An invitation was received to a Calendar Party at South Middleboro.

Mrs. Dona Ouellette was reported ill. Mrs. D. Lawrence Hartley has returned home after surgery at a Boston Hospital.

Mrs. Clifford Hedges asked for discarded sheets and blankets to be given to an animal hospital. Anyone wishing to donate them may contact Mrs. Hedges or Mrs. Floyd H. Taylor.

Mrs. Hedges and Mr. Taylor were the winners of the lecturer's march prizes. It was noted the lecturer, Miss Lucille Ouellette, had recently observed a birthday.

Group singing was enjoyed during the social hour followed by refreshments of donuts and coffee, served by Mrs. Louis Ouellette.

Visitors were present from Acushnet.

BUSINESSMEN'S ASSOCIATION ELECTS OFFICERS

At the March 14th meeting of the Mattapoisett Businessmen's Association a new slate of officers were elected for the year. They are Edmund Valladoa, president; Carlton Burr, secretary and Osmond Gingras, treasurer.

At that time it was voted to hold an open meeting Monday, April 30th, at 7:30 P.M. at the office of the Presto Press, Mechanic Street. As it has been some time since any previous meeting of the group, please be advised that all members are urgently asked to attend the April 30th meeting. All interested men in the area who are in business are cordially invited to discuss a plan from which, if developed, could benefit all business and the entire town as well.

Dear friends,
We are frequently asked, "Does the minister or priest receive a fee for the funeral service?"
No clergyman of our acquaintance charges for his services, nor would he thank us, perhaps, for calling the matter to public attention. However, it is the general custom to offer to the clergyman an optional amount. This is offered as a matter of information.
Respectfully, man's Club on Saturday evening, March 17, reports that it was a fine success. Members who assisted Mrs. Hartley at the supper were Mmes. Merton Hartley, George Church, Ward Benner, Robert Felton, Roger Wood, Wesley Davoll, and Paul Gary. Decorations and dining room committee was comprised of Mmes. Henry B. Smith, Everett L. Hardy and Fred Church. Ticket reservations were in charge of Mrs. Timothy O'Brien.

Following the supper, a little surprise party was held for Mrs. Paul Gary who is retiring from the nursing profession this week. Mrs. Gary was presented with a gift of jewelry and a cake made and decorated by Mrs. Ward Benner was served with coffee.

BOOK REVIEW GIVEN AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. Harold Dutton of Fairhaven chose to review the book, "The Carthaginian Rose", by Ilka Chase for members of the Rochester Woman's Club at the March meeting. In this fascinating book of her travels, Miss Chase takes one to the far corners of the world and introduces the reader to the various exotic customs of manners and dress and unusual foods of these lands. Particularly interesting was her coverage of the marriage of Grace Kelly to Prince Rainier in Monaco, and her description of Hong Kong, the British crown colony on the south coast of China.

At the business meeting, Mrs. Albert Hellyer gave a report on the delightful "Neighborhood Day" held at the Wareham Monday Club on March 12 in the afternoon. Six members of the Rochester Woman's Club attended; Mmes. Greenwood Hartley, Sr., Roger Wood, Robert Felton, Wesley Davoll, Henry Smith and Albert Hellyer. A coffee hour was enjoyed followed by a business meeting and then each club represented was asked to contribute a fifteen minute program. The Rochester Club arranged for a musical program by seniors from the Old Rochester Regional High School. Students who entertained were Peter Sawyer of Mattapoisett, pianist, who played his own composition; Anne Smith of Rochester, tap dance in costume; and a quartet from Marion, the Misses Sandra Briggs, Leslie MacFarlane, Judy Ryder and Joanne Gibbs.

A request from the New Bedford Scout office was approved for the use of the clubhouse

CLOSED · VACATION

WILL REOPEN FRIDAY APRIL 6th

on the Friday evening of March 23rd for movies to be shown on Cachalot Council and camping activities for Boy Scouts. Mr. Bob Patrick, Scout executive, will be present and parents are invited. Refreshments will be served. The Woman's Club sponsors Troop 30 in Rochester.

The nominating committee voted are Mrs. Wesley Davoll, chairman; Mrs. Paul Gary and Mrs. George Church.

It was voted that the program committee be asked to serve for another year. They are Mmes. Alphonse Raymond, Paul Gary, Everett L. Hardy and Henry B. Smith.

Mrs. Fred Church, president, reminded members of the smorgasbord to be served on Saturday evening, March 17, and remarked that she'd been told by the ticket chairman, Mrs. Timothy O'Brien, that tickets were going very well.

Mrs. Albert Hellyer served as hostess at the coffee hour. A St. Patrick theme was used for decorations and the buffet table was centered with a lovely white African violet and green candles on a lace cloth.

BLACKBURN COLLEGE NEWS BUREAU

Douglas Johnson of Mattapoisett was recently named head of set construction of the Blackburn Players' production of "The Importance of Being Ernest". The drama group is one of the co-curricular activities at Blackburn College.

Johnson, a sophomore majoring in chemistry, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, Harbor Beach, Mattapoisett. He is a 1959 graduate of Fairhaven High School. He formerly attended New Bedford Institute of Technology.

Blackburn College is an independent liberal-arts institution located in central Illinois. It is famed for its "work-study" program
